

#1 Dinosaur Dream

Total Word Count: 192

Last night I had the wildest dream. The dream was all about dinosaurs doing something very funny. The dinosaurs were bowling! It was just like my friends and I when we go bowling on the weekend. There were four dinosaurs playing together. There was a purple one with a really long neck. He used his neck to get the bowling ball down the lane. Then there was a flying orange one. She carried the bowling ball all the way down to the end of the lane. Next up was a green one with horns. That dinosaur used her horns to roll the ball down the lane. The fourth dinosaur was big but had short arms. He couldn't use his arms for bowling. He ended up hitting the ball down the lane with his tail. The dinosaurs seemed to really enjoy bowling. They were even all pretty good at it! In my dream, they played for hours. The bowling balls never got too heavy for them! It was such a silly dream. When I woke up, it made me giggle. I would love to see some dinosaurs at our bowling alley this weekend!

#3 My First Fish

Total Word Count: 228

"I finally did it," I shouted as I ran inside. There was one problem though, I couldn't find anyone anywhere in my house. My sister had been home before I left, but she wasn't now. She must have been at a friend's house. I looked all over for my mom but she wasn't anywhere. Then I checked out the window in the front of our house. There she was, working in the yard. I opened the front door and sprinted out to her. "Mom, guess what I did," I yelled as I quickly ran over to her. "I got my very first fish." My mom looked up from the flowers she was watering. "That is so great, Ethan," she said. "Tell me all about it." I told her how it was from the lake that is right behind our house. I showed her how I put the bait on my hook all by myself. My mom thought I did really well. I then told her how I let the fish go back into the lake. "I didn't want him to miss his family," I said. She told me she thought that was a good choice. After sharing the story with my mom, I ran back inside. I couldn't wait for my sister and my dad to come home. I would get to tell them the whole story, too!

#4 No, Thank You!

Total Word Count 200

My friend Luke asked me to come over and play. Luke was my friend from school. I had never been to his house but I thought it would be fun. My dad took me to his house later that day. We played games in his yard most of the day. Then Luke asked if I had any pets. I told him I had a pet cat that was very fluffy. He told me he had a pet too and asked if I wanted to see it. I said I would even though I didn't know what he had. We walked to his room and I saw the cage right away. Luke asked me if I wanted to hold his pet snake. "Yuck, no, thank you!" I said, "I do not like snakes." Luke told me his snake was very nice. He took the snake out while I stayed back by his door. The snake got longer as he slithered around the room. Thankfully Luke kept the snake away from me. It was kind of cool to watch the snake move around. I like my pet better though. I do not think I will ever want a snake of my own!

#5 The Camping Visitor Total Word Count 225

Each summer, I go on a camping trip with my friends. The trip is a lot of fun. We get to sleep in sleeping bags in a tent. Each night we roast marshmallows and hotdogs. In the daytime, we go on hikes and look for wildlife. We never see anything other than deer and birds. Until the trip we took this summer. It started out just like all our other trips. We set up our tent and placed our sleeping bags inside. We went for a short hike in the forest by our tent. Everything seemed just like it always did. My parents started a fire for us and we sat down to roast our marshmallows and hotdogs. That's when we heard a strange sound. It was coming from right by our tent. We all turned to look at our tent. None of us could believe what we saw. There was a bear right behind our tent! It was peeking right over the tent looking at us. It must have smelled our food over the fire. The bear looked pretty friendly, but we all got scared. My parents told us to start making loud noises and clapping. Thankfully, once we did that, the bear walked away. It didn't like all the noise. It also never came back to our tent. We were all very glad!
